

Rep. Israel went to the floor to defend legislation that President Bush has threatened to veto. The bipartisan legislation would increase funds for cancer research, provide the largest increase to veterans health care and provide critical resources to defend our nation.